These numbers are consistent throughout all counties we serve - Chatham, Effingham, Bryan, & Liberty!

THE STATE OF HOUSING IN THE COASTAL EMPIRE

10,000
additional affordable housing units are needed in Chatham County to meet the current demand.

186-hour
work week required for a minumum wage worker to afford a $1,305 two-bedroom rental, the average for non-luxury apartments.

6,000
people are on the wait list
for Section
8 housing
vouchers.

40%
of households in the Coastal Empire
are cost-burdened,
spending >30% of
income on housing.

89% of families
that graduate our program remain stably
housed one year later!
